DEMOCRACY
YOUR VOICE. YOUR VIDEO.

We asked people around the world to create short videos completing the phrase, “Democracy is...” Over 900 contestants from 95 countries answered the call! Now we’re down to 21 finalists! Cast your vote for the winners!

The Democracy Video Challenge is about to enter its final phase. Over 900 contestants from 95 countries submitted videos explaining their views of democracy. Our distinguished panel of jurors representing film, media, academia, democracy promotion and youth empowerment selected 21 finalists.

Now it’s your turn to choose the winners. Six video producers – one from each region of the world – will win an all-expense-paid trip to New York, Washington and Hollywood. In addition, there will be one anonymous winner. Their future is in your hands.

Go to the Democracy Video Challenge YouTube site at www.youtube.com/democrachallenge, click the voting tab and view the finalists. Give a thumbs up to the videos you think best capture the meaning of democracy.

You have until June 15 to cast your votes. Winning videos will be posted on YouTube on June 16.

Good luck to all of the contestants!
